

Hello, I'm Paul Dumbleton, Senior Partner & Managing Director, of Beech Jones de Lloyd Solicitors.

Welcome to our website.

If you are in need of a solicitor, it is important to see this as an opportunity - not as a problem - or something to fear.

It is an opportunity for you to Learn and Grow in knowledge and wisdom.

You could mean, you an individual, you a business or partnership a public body.

Well, What will you learn?

- You will learn something of the law that affects your particular circumstances
- You will learn how the Courts or Tribunals of England & Wales operate
- You will learn how solicitors and other professionals such as Barristers, Queens Counsel, Judges, Accountants, Tax Consultants – how they think and work
- You will learn a lot about human nature (including your own) when sitting around a negotiating table
- You will learn how to face what you fear
- You will learn that every thought and action has consequences

And, How will you grow?

I promise that you will grow in knowledge, wisdom and spirit and here is why;

- You will come to understand that you had different expectations of many of the things that I have just mentioned
- You will recognise the courage that you needed to i. face what you fear; ii. face the 'unknown' outcome of the law and iii. to place your trust in someone else
- You will come to question your desires and with that questioning understand what is really important to you in your life
- You will learn to choose different thoughts and outcomes and understand that you can control both
We have a history of taking on seemingly impossible problems and finding inspired solutions.

How do we achieve this?

At one level the answer is very simple but underlying that simplicity is something very complex and yet truly amazing.

For now I will tell you the simple answer:

We, and by we I mean you and us, achieve inspired solutions by combining your energies with ours.

Your energy takes the following form;

- A huge desire to succeed and to see the problem through to the very end – whatever that might entail.

Our energy takes the same form;

- We too have a huge desire for you to succeed and for you to see the problem through to the very end – whatever that might entail

It is this combination of energies, when our desires combine with yours that a very powerful force can be applied to whatever the problem is.

How do we apply this combined 'energy', this 'force'?

It is very simple.

- We Listen to you.
- We Read your documents and papers
- We Talk to you about you and the outcomes you need and desire
- We Apply our knowledge and experience and then when it is a really difficult problem
- We meditate

But I am

- always
- totally
- confident

that an outcome that you need will be found – and better still - almost always the outcome that you want will also be found.

We work with clients across the UK and overseas.

Myself and this excellent team will be delighted to act for you and protect your interests whether it is

- Advising you on how to use the law to your best advantage
- Helping you negotiate a better outcome, Or
- Representing you in Court

Remember – whatever help you need from us, I recommend that you see it is an opportunity for you to Learn and Grow in knowledge, wisdom and spirit.
